

UMass Boston
Pilot Laptop Lending Program for
Early Childhood Paraprofessionals

*Has the lack of a computer kept you from taking advantage of online professional development
and free course offerings?*

The Graduate College of Education, Boston Ready Grant, and the Removing Barriers Grant are launching a special program to enable paraprofessionals to participate in our online Education Courses. If you qualify, you will receive:

- Dell laptop computer (lending periods by semester)
- Free technology workshop and support
- Free regular academic assistance with course content
- Assistance with matriculation process

Fall courses begin early Sept. – Spring courses begin at the end of Jan.

If you are interested in participating for Fall 2008 and/or Spring 2009, please contact Brenda D'Alotto as soon as possible to receive your application: Brenda.dalotto@umb.edu, FAX: 617-287-4352, OR, call 617-287-4397.
